*T*HE larger pots will accommodate small trees, which can thus be placed to best advantage as they grow. All pots and bowls such as Fern Bowls and Lion's Head pots, lend themselves excellently to many interiors. They enable you to bring your favorite plant or flower indoors. You will find them large enough to accommodate any average indoor plant, thus insuring more luxuriant growth. When used indoors, they should be placed in saucers, which can be supplied. See price list.
